

CLIENT REVIEWS & SUCCESS STORIES

I just want to say a huge thank you for my cv rewrite, you have managed to put into words my career of the past 4 years into something that I couldn't even imagine. And in such little time too!

You have given me the confidence and the push that I needed after making me realise how much work I have done that I'm proud of. It all comes to light when it's been put on paper.

Thank you so much, I can't wait to let you know where this kick ass CV takes me!

I just wanted to say a big thank you. Your CV helped me to change career paths, and I have just landed a new job in a NEW sector with a 40% PAYRISE!

It was a big decision to change career paths but your CV gave me the confidence to see how transferable my skills are.

I've had so many comments on how much my CV stands out from the pile! THANK YOU!

I'm so happy I came across Good Copy and Lo when I did!

After suffering from burnout and not even having the energy to think about a new CV, she took the weight off and provided me with a resume that really highlighted my skills, when I wasn't in the headspace to do it myself.

The whole process was so smooth and has left me feeling so confident when applying for jobs.

I would HIGHLY recommend Lo for anyone who needs a killer CV to help them take the next step towards a new job!

I can't put into words how much you have helped me Lo!

After being stuck in the corporate rat race since leaving uni, I've managed to land a job in my DREAM creative industry and finally put my artistic qualifications to real use!

You took my boring and drab CV and injected it with colour and personality and the interviewer commented on it straight away.

THANK YOU SO MUCH. This has changed everything.

I can't even put into words how much Lo has helped me!

I have been stuck in a career rut for almost a year, with no idea how to get myself out of it.

Lo was warm, funny and relatable and brought out all the best bits of my CV, giving it a much needed makeover.

I can't wait to approach my job search with fresh eyes and CONFIDENCE!

After years out of the job game I didn't even have a CV for Lo to work from.

What felt like a mammoth task to me was made so easy and enjoyable!

For such an affordable price I've come away with a tailored CV that represents who I am as an individual.

I just wanted to say a massive thank you Lo.

Based on your CV I bagged an interview on Friday, and was offered the job on Monday morning!

I am soooo happy! And I would never have had the confidence to sell myself the way that you did!

I couldn't have done this without your CV!

Thank you so much for my CV, and for sending it so quickly!

This is literally the best version of myself on paper.
You have captured the skills I've gained over the years, even including ones I didn't realise I had!

My CV is professional but my personality still shines through, and I am so grateful for your encouragement and help. I can't tell you how much I appreciate it.

I just wanted to let you know that I applied for 3 jobs with my new CV.

I got 2 interviews and successfully landed a job!

Thank you SO much. This is going to make my life balance so much easier and I am so much more confident with my amazing new CV!

I have to say thank you again Lo.

I never could have written myself a CV which captures all of my experience in such a straight forward way.

It gave me such confidence reading about myself in someone else's words.

I am beyond grateful to have happened across Good Copy.

I was feeling totally unprepared to approach job openings after years away, and my CV was dated and stagnant.

What Lo has done is the ultimate makeover, essentially showcasing and enhancing my professional assets on paper in a way that I've never been able to do myself.

I now feel so confident and well equipped approaching my dream roles, without having to worry that I've sabotaged my chances at the first hurdle.

Lo's personal approach made the experience a lovely and exciting one and she has reignited my desire to push forward with belief in myself that has previously been in decline!

I could not recommend her more!

I've had my first interview in 11 years today, and your rephrasing of my profile and personal statement helped me to answer questions around why I left my previous position, and why I wanted to move into a new role.

I was able to answer them in a really concise, positive and honest way, and as a result...

I've only gone and got the job!!!
Thank you sooo much!

Thank you for giving my CV an injection of confidence and ownership, something my own version would truly lack!

Your perspective has given it a new lease of life and stronger voice (and has saved me hours of rewrites!)

Thank you!

I submitted my CV on Monday evening, and had a call by Tuesday evening to offer me an interview. I was offered the job a few days later and couldn't believe it!

It is part time, flexible, and great employee benefits. Your CV helped me to get the type of job I wanted, but never thought I could get after a FIVE YEAR CAREER BREAK.

I just wanted to say a massive thank you, I would never have been able to get this job without you re-writing my CV!

Seeing how you saw ME and my skills has given me so much confidence beyond the CV itself. It's helped me to feel so confident in interviews.

I even re-read my personal profile before my interview and felt so empowered!

The first question was about my break from work, but because we agreed to tackle this upfront in the CV I felt so much more confident EXPLAINING it rather than APOLOGISING for it!

Your interpretation of my career break allowed me to explain it in such a positive way, and I can never thank you enough as I've spent 5 years away from the work place dreading trying to come back and worried I'd never get a job again.

Please keep doing what you do! You are amazing at your job, empowering people and making such a big difference to people's lives!

My CV is perfect! I'm so glad I found you on Instagram!

I am so happy our paths aligned just when I was feeling lost and deflated trying to get my CV where it needed to be.

Looking forward now to feeling confident applying for jobs, and I'll go to bed tonight feeling great about myself!

I've recommended you to others, and I think people will be as relieved as me to find someone friendly, open minded and experienced to support with their CV!

Lo is brilliant and has helped me so much with my job hunt this year!

I actually look at my CV now and feel proud of how I am representing myself.

She has such a way with words, and makes you see things from a different perspective!

WOW Lo this is so amazing! I don't recognise myself!

Thank you so, so much, this is exactly what I needed. I love how without even meeting me you have managed to figure me out and make my personality and professional experience come through so well on my CV.

You have given me the much needed confidence boost to start putting myself out there and applying for jobs!

Thank you again, I'll be recommending you to everyone I know who needs help too!

Well...so far I've sent my sparkly new CV off for one job and been called straight in for an interview!

Thank you, thank you, thank you for getting my skills and experience down on paper, and for ultimately giving me a right old confidence boost when I needed it most!

Lo...I am truly amazed at what you have done!

I can't believe you've captured all of this through one email!

In fact, I feel you have over sold me haha! I sound so good!

Thank you so much, and good luck with your business!

Just wanted to say thank you for your help with rewriting my CV and Cover Letter!

I have FINALLY been offered a new job which I have agreed to take.

Without your help I wouldn't have got the role!

People even commented on the wording of my CV, saying they don't see enough of them!

I just want to say thank you so much! The work you have done is absolutely amazing and makes my CV so much easier to digest, along with making it look like I've had a series of connected roles, rather than the random mix I always felt like it showed.

You have a real skill in being able to distill a huge amount of information into a concise document, without losing any of the impact.

I sound competent and experienced, something which I had started to doubt!

For a range of reasons, I'd lost confidence in my skills and experience, but reading my shiny new CV this morning has reinvigorated me and I am absolutely ready to start my search for a new role!

You deserve so much success with Good Copy, you are just brilliant!

I am so delighted to tell you, today I got the offer of my dreams from the job I have ploughed so much time, research and preparation into.

I cannot believe it! Thank you so much for your help in this journey.

I am so proud of myself and can't believe it truly - this is a whole new chapter for me after 12 and a half years!

I am SO delighted Lo, and feel so positive about things now!

Family, friends and colleagues have all commented on how well deserved this new promotion is, and how much brighter I've been in the last few weeks!

I'd go as far as to say it's the first time I've felt like me in over a year.

Getting you to do my CV is one of the best things I have ever ever done.

Lo is brilliant at her job!

Her ability to take your information and creatively and succinctly package it together is fantastic!

She can create a resume to suit your needs and target the job you're applying for, giving you the self confidence to apply for the job you want and walk into the interview with ease.

I can't recommend Lo enough...superb!

I thought I would report back because the last 2 days have been insane!

I gathered the courage to send off my CV to some recruiters, wanting to test the waters...

In 24 hours I've had a really great interview, with more booked in!

Thank you for reminding me that I can do so much more!

I wanted to let you know that this morning I got offered a new role!

Between you rewriting my CV, your content on interview tips and just your account in general, I had the confidence to find the pre-mummy version of myself and tap back into the knowledge I had acquired over the past 10 years.

I took a low paying job with zero security last year after completely losing my confidence and succumbing to terrible baby brain, telling myself that it was just temporary and just to keep my son in nursery.

However, it's been awful, and I didn't realise until a few weeks ago just how debilitating it has been.

But now, I am starting a new very well paid permanent role, in a company that allows me to work from home.

My family and I can start to travel and save again, and we'll have the money to enjoy life again.

I owe so much of this to you, and to Anna Whitehouse for mentioning you in her stories!

Wow! I almost didn't recognise myself!

Your version has made me feel so confident about my work and myself, and so much more aware of everything I've done!

When I was drafting my CV, I somehow felt like I hadn't done enough, but reading your version I thought to myself "Hey! Yes, I've done this!"

The way you've rewritten it has blown me away!

Every now and then when I feel a bit low, I read my CV and remember that's who I really am.

I've had 3 interviews and 2 offers off the back of the CV, and interviewers have commented on how much my CV stands out.

Getting you to do my CV was one of the best things I've ever done for myself!

Lo has an incredible skill for picking up the threads of your work history and experience and knitting them together to create a whole new version of yourself.

I came to Lo for a CV and Cover Letter (which she delivered in such a short turnaround), but what I came away with was a sense of purpose and clarity around my own capabilities.

Having her objectively sift through my work history highlighted just how much I had achieved, and helped to shape where I could head next.

An unexpected benefit of working with Lo was that her service meant that I was able to preserve some headspace and spare myself the emotional tension that comes with applying for new jobs.

I am so grateful for her unwavering kindness and support in what is often a nerve wracking situation!

Thanks Lo!

Just a quick update on my job hunt...

Since sending out the CV you created for me in the last week, I have had 3 first-stage interviews, which have led to 2 second-stage interviews.

Then this morning I have already had 2 calls for 2 more interviews!

Thank you so much for working your magic!

Every now and then when I feel a bit low, I read my CV and remember that's who I really am.

I've had 3 interviews and 2 offers off the back of the CV, and interviewers have commented on how much my CV stands out.

Getting you to do my CV was one of the best things I've ever done for myself!

Lo took the time to listen to my situation and my concerns, and my CV is so polished!

I felt so lost when reading through my outdated CV, now I smile because I know Lo has captured my skills perfectly.

Lo has a beautiful way of capturing the essence of you while maintaining a professional profile of who you are and your skillset.

I just wanted to say a HUGE thank you for the brilliant work you did with my CV.

I was asked in for an interview less than 24 hours after sending my CV.

There is absolutely no doubt in my mind that your CV got me through the door, and there's no way I could have done it without you!

Well...your beautiful CV landed me interviews for the 2 jobs I applied for.

I accepted an offer yesterday for the job I really, really wanted.

The interview process was hard, but your CV got me through the door and gave me the confidence to nail it.

I used the Personal Profile you wrote as me pre-interview pep talk and it got me in the right headspace to bring my best self to the interviews.

A million thank yous Lo...this new job is incredible!

I could not recommend Good Copy more!

Not only was Lo super friendly, she was empathetic to my situation when I had to leave my job after becoming a Mum.

My new CV was turned round really fast and gave me such a confidence boost.

I am SO happy to say I've landed a new role in an industry I've wanted to work in for a really long time!

Genuinely Lo, the change in mine and my family's life is unreal. Your CV has given me so much confidence.

I've even been asked to apply for an internal senior role already!

I have savings, self-esteem, a new car, happiness and good skin again haha!

And getting a mortgage for a house doesn't seem even half as daunting as it did when I first got in touch.

I bumped into my old manager last week and walked away beaming with joy knowing how much my life has improved since you made me see myself in a different light. I will always be grateful!
