STORIES

After suffering from burnout and not even having the energy to think about a new CV, you took the weight off when I wasn't in the headspace to do it myself.

The whole process was so smooth and has left me feeling so confident when applying for jobs.

I would HIGHLY recommend you for anyone who needs a killer CV!

I can't put into words how much you have helped me!

After being stuck in the corporate rat race since leaving uni, I've managed to land a job in my DREAM creative industry and finally put my artistic qualifications to real use!

You took my boring CV and injected it with personality and the interviewer commented on it straight away.

THANK YOU SO MUCH. This has changed everything.

God knows how you managed to put my lengthy career into such great words!

You have given me the confidence and the push that I needed after making me realise how much work I have done that I'm proud of.

It all comes to light when it's on paper, thank you so much!

I just wanted to say a big thank you.

Your CV helped me to change career paths, and I have just landed a new job in a NEW sector with a 40% PAYRISE!

It was a big decision to change career paths but your CV gave me the confidence to see how transferable my skills are.

I've had so many comments on how much my CV stands out from the pile!

I can't even put into words how much you have helped me!

I have been stuck in a career rut for almost a year, with no idea how to get myself out of it.

You are so warm, funny and relatable and brought out all the best bits of my CV.

I can't wait to approach my job search with fresh eyes and CONFIDENCE!

After years out of the job market I didn't even have a CV to work from.

What felt like a mammoth task to me was made so easy and enjoyable!

For such a great price I've come away with a tailored CV that represents who I am as an individual.

Based on your CV I bagged an interview on Friday, and was offered the job on Monday morning!

I am soooo happy! And I would never have had the confidence to sell myself the way that you did!

I couldn't have done this without your CV!

This CV is literally the best version of myself on paper.

You have captured the skills I've gained over the years, even including ones I didn't realise I had!

My CV is professional but my personality still shines through, and I am so grateful for your encouragement and help.

I can't tell you how much I appreciate it.

I applied for 3 jobs with my new CV.

I got 2 interviews and successfully landed a great new job!

Thank you SO much. This is going to make my life balance so much easier and I am so much more confident with my amazing new CV!

I never could have written myself a CV which captures all of my experience in such a straight forward way.

It gave me such confidence reading about myself in your words.

I've had 3 recruiters tell me how great my CV is, and put me forward for great new jobs!

I've had my first interview in 11 years today, and your rephrasing of my profile and personal statement helped me to answer questions around why I left my previous position, and why I wanted to move into a new role.

I was able to answer them in a really concise, positive and honest way, and as a result...

I've only gone and got the job!!!

Thank you for giving my CV an injection of confidence and ownership, something my own version would truly lack!

Your perspective has given it a new lease of life and stronger voice (and has saved me hours of rewrites!)

My CV is perfect! I'm so glad I found you on Instagram just when I was feeling lost and deflated.

I'm actually excited to apply for jobs, and I'll go to bed tonight feeling great about myself!

It's refreshing getting help from someone so friendly, open minded and experienced!

You are brilliant and have helped me so much with my job hunt this year!

I actually look at my CV now and feel proud of how I am representing myself.

You have such a way with words, and made me see myself from a different perspective!

I don't recognise myself!

This is exactly what I needed. I love how without even meeting me you have managed to figure me out and make my personality and professional experience come through so well on my CV.

You have given me the much needed confidence boost to start putting myself out there again!

So far I've sent my sparkly new CV off for one job and been called straight in for an interview!

Thank you, thank you, thank you for getting my skills and experience down on paper, and for ultimately giving me a right old confidence boost when I needed it most!

I am amazed at what you've done!

I can't believe you've captured all of this through one email!

In fact, I feel you have over sold me haha! I sound so good!

I can't believe it, I have FINALLY been offered a new job after redundancy!

Without your help I wouldn't have got the role!

People even commented on the wording of my CV, saying they don't see enough CVs like this!

I am so delighted to tell you, today I got the offer of my dreams from the job I have ploughed so much time, research and preparation into.

I cannot believe it! Thank you so much for your help in this journey.

I am so proud of myself and can't believe it truly - this is a whole new chapter for me after over 12 years!

I feel so positive about things now!

Family, friends and colleagues have all commented on how well deserved my new promotion is, and how much brighter I've been in the last few weeks!

I'd go as far as to say it's the first time I've felt like me in over a year.

Getting you to do my CV is one of the best things I have ever done.

Geez...you are brilliant at your job!

Your ability to take information and creatively and succinctly package it is fantastic!

Your CV has given me the confidence to apply for the jobs I actually want and walk into the interview with ease.

I can't recommend you enough!

The last 2 days have been insane!

I gathered the courage to send off my CV to some recruiters, wanting to test the waters...

In 24 hours I've had a really great interview, with more booked in!

Thank you for reminding me that I can do so much more!

I almost didn't recognise myself!

Your version has made me feel so confident about my work and myself, and so much more aware of everything I've done!

I used to feel like I hadn't done enough, but your CV reminded me:
"Hey! Yes, I've done this!"

The way you've rewritten it has blown me away!

Every now and then when I feel a bit low, I read my CV and remember that's who I really am.

I've had 3 interviews and 2 offers off the back of the CV, and interviewers have commented on how much my CV stands out.

Getting you to do my CV was one of the best things I've ever done for myself!

Since sending out the CV you created for me in the last week, I have had 3 first-stage interviews, which have led to 2 second-stage interviews.

Then this morning I have already had 2 calls for 2 more interviews!

Thank you for working your magic!

I just wanted to say a HUGE thank you for the brilliant CV.

I was asked in for an interview less than 24 hours after sending my CV.

There is absolutely no doubt in my mind that your CV got me through the door, and there's no way I could have done it without you!

Your CV landed me interviews for the 2 jobs I applied for.

I accepted an offer yesterday for the job I really, really wanted.

The interview process was hard, but your CV got me through the door and gave me confidence!

I used the Personal Profile you wrote as a pre-interview pep talk and it got me in the right headspace.

Not only are you super friendly, you were so empathetic to my situation when I had to leave my job after becoming a Mum.

My new CV gave me such a confidence boost.

I am SO happy to say I've landed a new role in an industry I've wanted to work in for a really long time!

The change in mine and my family's life is unreal.
Your CV has given me so much confidence.

I've even been asked to apply for an internal senior role already!

I have savings, self-esteem, a new car, happiness and good skin again haha!

And getting a mortgage for a house doesn't seem even half as daunting as it did when I first got in touch.

I bumped into my old manager last week and walked away beaming with joy knowing how much my life has improved since you made me see myself in a different light. I will always be grateful!

You have such a skill for picking up the threads of a work history and knitting them together to create a whole new version of someone.

I came to you for a CV and Cover Letter, but left with purpose and confidence.

An unexpected benefit of working with you, was that I could preserve some headspace and spare myself the emotional tension that comes with applying!

I am so grateful for your unwavering kindness and support in what is often a nerve wracking situation!

This morning I got offered a new role!

Between you rewriting my CV and your content on interview tips, I had the confidence to find the pre-mummy version of myself and tap back into the knowledge I had acquired over the past 10 years.

I took a low paying job with zero security after completely losing my confidence, and I didn't realise until recently just how debilitating it has been.

But now, I am starting a new very well paid permanent role, in a company that allows me to work from home. My family and I can start to travel and save again, and we'll have the money to enjoy life again.

The work you have done is absolutely amazing and makes my CV so much easier to digest, along with making it look like I've had a series of connected roles, rather than a random mix.

You have a real skill in being able to distill a huge amount of information into a concise document, without losing any of the impact.

I sound competent and experienced, something which I had started to doubt! For a range of reasons, I'd lost confidence in my skills and experience, but reading my new CV this morning has reinvigorated me and I am absolutely ready to start my search for a new role!

I submitted my CV on Monday evening, and had a call by Tuesday evening to offer me an interview. I was offered the job a few days later & couldn't believe it!

It is part time, flexible, and great employee benefits. *Your CV helped me to get the type of job I wanted, but never thought I could get after a FIVE YEAR CAREER BREAK.

I just wanted to say a massive thank you, I would never have been able to get this job without you re-writing my CV!

Seeing how you saw ME and my skills has given me so much confidence beyond the CV itself. It's helped me to feel so confident in interviews.

I even re-read my personal profile before my interview and felt so empowered!

The first question was about my break from work, but because we agreed to tackle this upfront in the CV I felt so much more confident EXPLAINING it rather than APOLOGISING for it!

Your interpretation of my career break allowed me to explain it in such a positive way, and I can never thank you enough as I've spent 5 years away from the workplace dreading coming back and worried I'd never get a job again.

You are amazing at your job, empowering people and making such a big difference to people's lives!

I was feeling totally unprepared to approach job openings after years away, and my CV was dated and stagnant.

What you've done is the ultimate makeover, showing and enhancing my skills on paper in a way that I've never been able to do myself.

I now feel so confident and well equipped approaching my dream roles, without having to worry that I've sabotaged my chances at the first hurdle.

Your personal approach made the experience lovely and exciting, and you have reignited my desire to push forward with a belief in myself that had been in decline!
